13. Monitoring the implementation of awards under the Banking Ombudsman Scheme / Nodal Department / Nodal Officer.

The Customer Service Committee of the branch should play a more pro-active role with regard to complaints / grievances resolved by Banking Ombudsmen of the various States.

The Scheme of Banking Ombudsman was introduced with the object of enabling resolution of complaints relating to provision of banking services and resolving disputes between a bank and its constituent through the process of conciliation, mediation and arbitration in respect of deficiencies in customer service. After detailed examination of the complaints / grievances of customers of banks and after perusal of the comments of banks, the Banking Ombudsmen issue their awards in respect of individual complaints to redress the grievances. Banks should ensure that the Awards of the Banking Ombudsmen are implemented expeditiously and with active involvement of Top Management.

Further, with a view to enhancing the effectiveness of the Customer Service Committee, the bank should also:

a) place all the awards given by the Banking Ombudsman before the Customer Service Committee to enable them to address issues of systemic deficiencies existing in banks, if any, brought out by the awards; and

b) place all the awards remaining unimplemented for more than three months with the reasons therefor before the Customer Service Committee to enable the Customer Service Committee to report to the Standing Committee on Customer Service / Management Committee such delays in implementation without valid reasons and for initiating necessary remedial action.

The Standing Committee on Customer Service at Head Office should monitor all complaints which has been raised to the Ombudsman and should report to the Management Committee.

Further the Nodal Department for customer service in Head Office will be the Business Support Department (BSD) and the Nodal Officer will be the Head of BSD. The customers may also approach in the first instance to the Head of BSD and he will be the coordinator for Banking Ombudsman and RBI.
